

PRESS RELEASE

The City of Coquille has completed a timber sale, and the company doing the work has constructed logging roads this summer for harvesting this winter. They will begin logging operations beginning the first week of October. They will enter the city on Adams Street, turning on to 2nd Street, and finally up Shelley Road to the city property. Then they will reverse the route once loaded. Please use extra caution when traveling on these routes.