

City of Coquille
Press Release
WATER OUTAGE

On Feb. 3, 2017 a main water line developed a leak on 17th Street, the crew is working on it and should have it repaired before the end of the day. Some residents are without water, service should be restored this afternoon. The water is safe but will likely be discolored for some time.